sherry

this fortified wine is made from white grapes (usually palomino) grown near the town of Jerez de la Frontera in Andalusia sherry is produced in a variety of styles ranging from dry, lighter versions such as manzanilla and fino to darker more weighty versions that have been allowed to oxidise as they age in barrel such as amontillado and oloroso served in 50ml glasses

tio pepe

fino 3,50

dry, light, tangy & elegant; served chilled, great with fried fish like our crispy squid las medallas de argüeso manzanilla 3,50

a fino-style sherry with a more delicate, salty edge; served chilled and best with our charcuterie and cheese selections

alvear, montilla moriles amontillado 3,50

an aged fino sherry with a nutty taste - perfect with our salads, almonds or beetroot flatbread asunción

oloroso 4,75

a full bodied dry sherry, rich and intense dried fruit - great match for our chargrilled tapas cardenal cisneros romate pedro ximenez 5,50
