Bestwood Winding Engine, Bestwood Country Park, Off Park Road, Bestwood Village NG6 8ZA

Bestwood Country Park was once home to one of the busiest coal mines in Nottinghamshire. The Winding Engine House is the last remaining part of the former colliery. The tall brick building houses a huge winding engine which lowered colliers into the mine shaft, and winched mined coal up to the surface. Originally it was powered by steam, but today's visitors see the massive engine turned by an electrical motor. The Engine House is open for free on the Big Day Out from 10am to 1pm with volunteers on hand to explain how it works and the Dynamo House café will also be open serving homemade cakes. Children can be 'History Hunters' and dress up as both modern and Victorian miners and the family fun trolley has more to keep them occupied too. To find out more call 0115 976 2422

Bilsthorpe Heritage Museum, Cross Street, Bilsthorpe, Nottinghamshire, NG22 8QY

The museum contains a collection of items dedicated to the mining industry and the social history surrounding the community of Bilsthorpe. There are accurate models of the heavy machinery used in collieries, breathing apparatus, photographs etc - as well as a team of volunteers to show visitors round and explain the history. The museum is open from 10am to 4pm on the Big Day Out.

Breach House, 28 Garden Road, Eastwood, NG16 3FW

The Breach House is a re-creation of a former pit-house built in the second half of the 19th century, and was used as the setting for the early part of D H Lawrence's 1913 novel 'Sons and Lovers'. The Lawrence family lived here from 1887-1891 after they left Victoria Street (now the Birthplace Museum). There are plans for its refurbishment (whilst still retaining its original features) as a Centre for the Arts, Industry and Education, including accommodation for scholars and lovers of Lawrence. On April 28th, as part of the Big Day Out the house and garden will be open from 11-3pm for free guided tours. Hot drinks and light refreshments available.

Calverton Folk Museum, Main Street, Calverton, NG14 6FG

The Canalside Heritage Centre is a thriving hub for visitors to enjoy and explore, with a tea room, gift shop and interpretation centre, as well as tranquil gardens. Enjoy a walk along the river or the canal, Look out for the many boats, enjoy the changing colours and sunshine on the water and enjoy the plentiful wildlife that can be found at any time of year. Open 9.30am to 4.30pm. For more information call 0115 9221773.

Creswell Crags, Crags Road, Welbeck, Worksop, Nottinghamshire, S80 3LH

Ancient limestone caves tell the story of life over 50,000 years ago, back in the last Ice Age. Inside the visitor centre there is a museum, showcasing some of the most amazing ice age and stone age artefacts ever found. There is also an augmented reality sand box in the museum - perfect for little explorers! There's free entry to the main exhibition for the Big Day Out with handling sessions of artefacts throughout the day, and also free behind-the-scenes tours of the collections store which is jam-packed with bones! These tours will take place throughout the day from 10.30am and will take approx. 20-30 mins. Booking is required on 01909 720378. You can also take a stroll alongside the caves and feed the friendly ducks in the gorge, head to the café for a spot of lunch, coffee or cake, or take an exciting tour into the caves which will run throughout the day for an extra charge. All day parking is £3.

D.H. Lawrence Birthplace Museum, 8a Victoria Street, Eastwood, Nottinghamshire NG16 3AW

Enjoy a taster tour of the museum and see an interactive demonstration of a Victorian wash-house. It is suitable for all ages and a great opportunity to come and see the authentically restored mining cottage where the controversial writer was born. The event takes place from 11am till 4pm (last admission 3.30pm). There is no need to book and parking is available nearby. Please call 0115 9173824 for more details.
