Lowdham Book Festival

Friday 19th – Sunday 28th June 2015
Lowdham Village, Nottinghamshire
www.lowdhambookfestival.co.uk

Tickets: The Bookcase, Lowdham 0115 9663219

Hello - it's that time again! In this 16th year of the Lowdham Book Festival we look forward to welcoming friends old and new. We are delighted that our festival takes place during Independent Bookshop Week, a national celebration of bookshops in all their glory! This year we are remembering Beatrix Potter on her wedding day and Alice in Wonderland at 150, talking about cricket rebels, crafts and sheep, Harry Potter, battles, gardens, music past and present, visiting Cyprus and Italy, and examining our own wonderful national dialects. Our free day of talks, stalls, children's tents, treasure hunts and music is back again to end the festival week, and we thank you all for helping us in our annual celebrations!

Jane Streeter and Ross Bradshaw

janestreeter@thebookcase.co.uk
www.thebookcase.co.uk
www.nottinghambooks.co.uk

bookshop@fiveleaves.co.uk
www.fiveleavesbookshop.co.uk
www.fiveleaves.co.uk

www.lowdhambookfestival.co.uk

Become a Friend of Lowdham Book Festival

Take advantage of discounted tickets for many of our events.

Receive our programmes before anyone else.

We'll invite you to exclusive Friends' events.

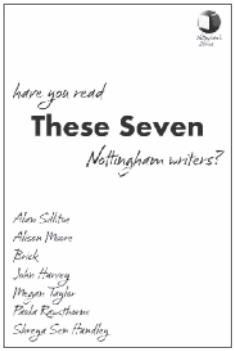

All for just £15 a year! (£25 for couples)

Send a cheque (payable to Lowdham Festivals Ltd) along with your name, address, and email address if you have one, to Lowdham Book Festival, The Bookcase, 50 Main Street, Lowdham, Notts NG14 7BE

Why not join when you order your tickets for this year's festival?

We're proudly supporting

NOTTINGHAM
CITY of LITERATURE

www.nottinghamcityofliterature.com

Village Hall, Main Street, Lowdham

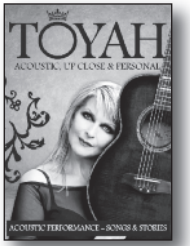

Friday 19th June, 8pm, £20

Toyah – Up Close and Personal

Saturday 20th June, 8pm, £22.50

Fotheringay – The Legends Return

Warthog Promotions are delighted to present two fantastic concerts to open the Lowdham Book Festival. Spanning a wide spectrum of musical tastes we welcome the uniquely gifted Toyah Wilcox with her Up Close and Personal tour, plus the reunited legendary band Fotheringay who are performing a small number of shows to coincide with the release of a limited edition set of recordings.

Please note - tickets for these two events are very limited. Please contact Michael Hoare on 0115 966 3596

Friday 19th June, 12.15–1pm

Southwell Minster, Church Street, Southwell, Nottinghamshire NG25 0HD

Beatrix Potter on her Wedding Day, with Julia Damassa

To start our festival we are delighted to once again be part of the Lunchtime at the Minster series of events.

Meet Beatrix Potter aged 47 on her wedding day in 1913, as she returns to her beloved Hill Top to say goodbye. Written and performed by local author and storyteller, Julia Damassa, "After Miss Potter" is a poignant bridging of fact and fiction, capturing the essence of one of our finest literary icons.

FREE event

Saturday 20th June, 10.45am–1pm

Neville Studio, Nottingham Playhouse, Wellington Circus, Nottingham NG1 5AF

Reading Group Day with Marina Fiorato

Today is National Reading Group Day – a campaign launched several years ago by Lowdham Festival organiser and The Bookcase owner Jane Streeter. This year we are very pleased to welcome back Marina Fiorato, who will be in discussion with Nottingham Playhouse artistic director Giles Croft, about her latest book, Beatrice and Benedick, based on Shakespeare's Much Ado About Nothing. Join us for coffee and cake, and as always there will be time for round table discussion in your own reading groups.

Tickets: £15 including refreshments plus a copy of Beatrice and Benedick

www.nottinghamplayhouse.co.uk

www.marinafiorato.com

Sunday 21st June, 11am–12.30pm
Village Hall, Main Street, Lowdham

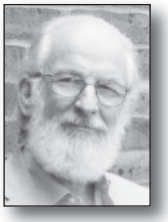

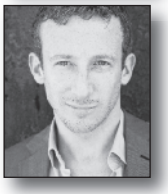

Killers of the King, with Charles Spencer

We are delighted to welcome Charles Spencer to the festival with his book, Killers of the King, in which he explores what happened when the Restoration arrived and retribution was brought against those who prosecuted, condemned, or oversaw the execution of the king. From the men who returned to the monarchist cause and betrayed their fellow regicides, to those that fled the country for Europe and America in an attempt to escape their gruesome punishment, this fascinating book recounts the fate of the fourscore men who dared to kill a king.

Tickets: £10 Full, £9 Concessions, £8 Festival Friends

Sunday 21st June, 2–4pm
Village Hall, Main Street, Lowdham

You Say Potato... with David and Ben Crystal

Love words and language? You couldn't be in better company! David and Ben Crystal guide us through the eccentricities of our native dialects. Witty, authoritative and full of fascinating facts, their book You Say Potato is a celebration of the myriad ways in which English is spoken, and how our accents speak louder than words. David will also talk about his new book The Disappearing Dictionary, which collects quirky English words before they disappear for ever.

Tickets: £7 Full, £6 Concessions, £5 Festival Friends

www.davidcrystal.com
www.bencrystal.com

Sunday 21st June, 7.30pm
Village Hall, Main Street, Lowdham

Festival Film Night Testament of Youth

(12A, 129 minutes)

A searing story of love, war and remembrance, based on Vera Brittain's memoir which became the classic testimony of WWI from a woman's point of view. A powerful and passionate journey from youthful hopes and dreams to the edge of despair and back again, it's a film about young love, the futility of war and how to make sense of the darkest times.

Tickets: £5 Full, £4 Concessions, £3 Festival Friends

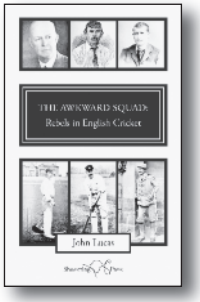

Wine bar, home-made cakes, hot drinks, ice-cream, popcorn

Monday 22nd June, 7.30–9pm
Caythorpe Cricket Club, Caythorpe Lane, Caythorpe, Notts

Cricket Rebels

An annual treat for the cricket enthusiast – this year Lowdham favourite Chris Arnot will talk to our resident cricket expert (and Nottinghamshire poet, critic, biographer and literary historian) John Lucas, about his new book The Awkward Squad: Rebels in English Cricket.

Tickets: £6 Full, £5 Concessions, £4 Festival Friends
Bar available

www.caythorpecc.co.uk
www.shoestring-press.com

Tuesday 23rd June, 11am–3.30pm
Southwell Road Community Building, Off Old Tannery Drive, Lowdham NG14 7PS

Crafts, Wool, Textiles (and sheep...)

We like to start traditions at the festival and last year we held our first Craft Day – so now it's a tradition! Do join us for our second annual day celebrating all things crafty. Bring your knitting and any other projects you are working on. There will be workshops, including origami and felting in a frame, along with these talks...

11:30am – Talented textile artists Liz Goulding and Liz Radford will give an introduction to workshops in "Painting with Threads", which will show you layering, embellishing, hand stitching and free machine embroidery.

"Painting with Threads" Creative Textiles Workshop
9.30–4.30 Friday 3rd July
Southwell Road Community Building, Lowdham
£60 to include all materials, £50 if two book together, £50 if booked at Festival Craft Day
Book by emailing lizzie.radford@outlook.com or janestreeter@thebookcase.co.uk

2.30pm – Local poet and smallholder Di Slaney will talk about her transition from a desk-based professional career in marketing and publishing to working outdoors on her smallholding, her passion for sheep and poetry, and her new (ad)venture in wool, Hooligan Yarns. There will be raw fleece to handle, beautiful Gotland yarn to buy and poems about knitting and sheep.

Tickets for the whole day, including talks and workshops: £10 Full, £9 Concessions, £8 Festival Friends

There will be hot and cold drinks, plus sandwiches and home-made cakes to purchase

Wednesday 24th June, 2–4pm
Southwell Road Community Building, Off Old Tannery Drive, Lowdham NG14 7PS

An Afternoon with Eve Makis

Join us for afternoon tea, where Eve will talk about her latest book, The Spice Box Letters. Katerina inherits a scented wooden spice box after her grandmother Mariam dies.

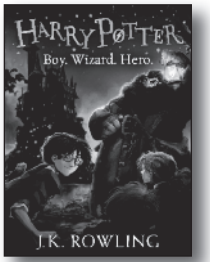

It contains letters and a diary, written in Armenian. As she pieces together her family story, Katerina learns that Mariam's childhood was shattered by the Armenian Genocide in 1915. In the centenary year Eve's beautifully written, compelling novel is a window onto the dark heart of this tragedy and its legacy.

Tickets: £7 Full, £6 Concessions, £5 Festival Friends

Includes tea and pastries

Wednesday 24th June, 4.30–5.30pm
Village Hall, Main Street, Lowdham

Boy. Wizard. Hero. Celebrating the Harry Potter books

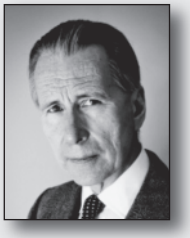

Have you ever wanted to explore the magical world of the Harry Potter books? Join our 'Professor of Potter' and his plucky assistant as they bring to life the characters, creatures, spells and adventures from Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone. A fun and interactive event for all the family whether you are new to the books or a dedicated fan. Certificates and postcards for all who attend. Come and share the magic!
NB – We have a stamp for anyone who want to get their books stamped at the end – old or newly-bought. This is exclusive to the event and says "I'm a Harry Potter fan"

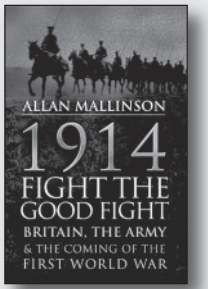

Tickets: £3

Wednesday 24th June, 7.15–9pm
The Player Hall, Nottingham High School, Waverley Mount, NG7 4ED

June 1915: Why was Victory so Elusive?

In the second year of the centenary commemorations of the First World War, former soldier, author and The Times chronicler of the Great War, Allan Mallinson, takes up the story from where his award-winning history 1914: Fight the Good Fight (2013) ends, examining why strategic stalemate came about, and why it persisted for another two and a half years.

Tickets: £15 full, £13 Concessions, £10 Festival Friends including wine and canapes

June 1915: Why was Victory so Elusive is in partnership with ABF – The Soldiers' Charity, which gives lifetime support to serving and retired soldiers and their families by providing financial assistance for mobility support, care home fees, mental health, housing, veteran care, respite breaks, educational bursaries, and debt relief.

Access to Nottingham High School via Forest Road East – car parking is inside the gate, and Player Hall is on the far side of the car park. The entrance is approx 150 yards from the High School tram stop on Waverley Street.

Thursday 25th June
Hoveringham Village Hall, Gonalston Lane, Hoveringham NG14 7JH

A Day for Gardeners...

10.30am–12.30pm: Grow to Eat, with Jackie Skinner and Catherine Humphries

Welcome back to our ever-popular cooking duo, who will demonstrate how to cook what you grow in this entertaining session for all foodies!
Tickets: £5 Full, £4 Concessions, £3 Festival Friends

2–4pm: Behind the Scenes at Chelsea, with Jo Thompson

Jo has won numerous awards at Chelsea Flower Show, including Best In Show, and she was named by the Society of Garden Designers as the 2014 Future Designer. She has a reputation for exquisite planting and understanding of space and place. Jo will be in conversation with garden writer and broadcaster Phil McCann.
An illustrated talk in partnership with Hoveringham Horticultural Society
Tickets: £7 Full, £6 Concessions, £5 Festival Friends

Friday 26th June, 12–3pm
Hart's Hotel, Standard Hill, Park Row, Nottingham NG1 6GN

Nottingham Literary Lunch, with Alan Johnson

Join us for a very special occasion at Hart's Hotel with Alan Johnson. Alan was born in 1950 into condemned housing in West London. Married with a child by the age of 18, Alan began his working life as a postman, but has spent the majority of his career in a wide variety of cabinet posts within the Labour government. He will talk to us about his early years, his political life and, of course, his books.
Alan will be in discussion with BBC Radio Nottingham's John Holmes.

Tickets: £40 (includes Prosecco on arrival, a two-course lunch with a glass of wine, and a paperback copy of Please Mister Postman)

Saturday 27th June, 10am–5pm
Village Hall, Main Street, Lowdham

All Day Book Fair and Café

Throughout the day the Village Hall hosts a café run by mmm… deli, serving hot and cold drinks, salads and panini, cakes and ice-cream. The bookfair is spread over the Village Hall, a marquee behind the hall and assorted gazebos. It features publishers, charities, book trade organisations, booksellers with new and second-hand books and cards. There are displays of old-fashioned letterpress printing equipment. Free author talks and talks about books will go on throughout the day. There will be books for children and adults, bargain books and books signed by all the authors appearing during the festival.

Entry is free to the bookfair and all events on Saturday 27th June.
No tickets required. Join us for an hour or the whole day!

11.00–12.00: Catharine Arnold on Globe: life in Shakespeare's England (illustrated)

WI Hall, Main Street
All the world's a stage...

11.00–12.00: Pete Smith on Newstead Abbey, its owners and architectural heritage 1540-1931 (illustrated)

Methodist Chapel, Main Street
"An old, old monastery once, and now / Still older mansion, of a rich and rare / Mix'd Gothic..." said Byron

11.00–12.00: Time for Crime with John Martin and M.P. Wright

Committee Room, Village Hall
M. P. Wright's Heartman is an atmospheric, confident crime story set in Bristol in 1965. He will be in conversation with John Martin, author of Crime Scene Britain and Ireland.

11.00–12.00: Oy Yew... bringing a book to life, with publisher Teika Bellamy, illustrator Emma Howitt and author Ana Salote

Marquee behind the Village Hall
Readings, discussion, and interactive writing and illustrating challenges. Suitable for anyone interested in children's books and children over 8.

12.30–1.30: Combat Camera with Christian Hill (illustrated)

WI Hall, Main Street
Christian was in charge of media operations within Afghanistan. In the middle of a bloody war he had to ensure that the media was safe, remembered their kit and did not get lost in a minefield.

12.30–1.30: After Tennyson? Lincolnshire poetry from Rory Waterman, Kathy Daszkiewicz and others (book launch)

Methodist Chapel, Main Street
Something Happens, Sometimes Here is a collection of the best poetry by modern Lincolnshire poets about this huge and sometimes mysterious county.

12.30–1.30: Kim Slater gets Smart

Marquee behind the Village Hall
A reading and talk from/about Notts' current best-selling book for children featuring a different kind of detective solving a mysterious crime.

12.30–1.30: Food and fiction, a creative writing workshop with Megan Taylor

Committee Room, Village Hall

Bring pen, paper, a picnic, a piece of cake or a photo of some food and join a creative writing workshop. In association with Nottingham Writers' Studio

---

2.00–3.00: Lesley Acton on Growing Space: a history of the allotment movement (illustrated)

WI Hall, Main Street

The story of those who fought for and preserve these city fields and country gardens, who dug for victory and tried not to lose the plot.

2.00–3.00: Have you read THESE SEVEN Nottingham writers?

Methodist Chapel, Main Street

The public launch of Nottingham's Big City Read & Write – with six of the fab seven present – Brick (cartoonist), Shreya Sen Handley, John Harvey, Alison Moore, Paula Rawsthorne and Megan Taylor with a mystery guest presenting Alan Sillitoe.

2.00–3.00: A Stonewood Press reading with Jacqueline Gabbitas, Anna Robinson and Di Slaney

Marquee behind the Village Hall

Stonewood Press is a bright star on the small press scene – poetry about family history, the forms of grass, and the night library.

2.00–3.00: Nigel McCrery on Silent Witnesses: a history of forensic science

Committee Room, Village Hall

From the Samerians to Richard III, with side orders of dealing with arsenic poisoning, forensic science is important. Here's the story.

3.30–4.30: East Midlands writers: Jamie Mollart and Rod Madocks in conversation

WI Hall, Main Street

Jamie Mollart's Zoo is a dark story of exploitation with the possibility of redemption, while Rod Madock's Babbicam is the story of the Devon man they could not hang.

3.30–4.30: Britons, Saxons, Vikings – Who Are the English? by Marianne Whiting

Methodist Chapel, Main Street

"Viking girls as well as boys were taught to ride, swim, use a bow and arrow..." A lighthearted look at those who lived in these parts before us.

3.30–4.30: Steampunk Time with Rod Duncan

Marquee behind the Village Hall

Launch of Rod's new steampunk book about the divided land of Victorian England, where Elizabeth Barnabus has been living a double life – as both herself and as her brother, the private detective.

3.30–4.30: Shoestring Press poetry

Committee Room, Village Hall

Wayne Burrows reading from his selected poems, Mahendra Solanki reading from The Lies We Tell and John Killick reading from the selected poems of Stanley Cook, launched today.

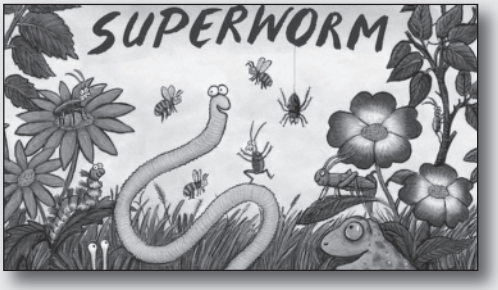

Saturday 27th June, 10.30am–4pm
Village Hall, Main Street, Lowdham

FREE Family Fun at the Festival!

No ticket needed, stay as long as you like!

Come and join the fun in our two lovely Children's Tents. Once again we are very happy to be joined by the team from RSPCA Nottingham and local renowned artist Emma Ball, who will be creative and crafty all day long! There will be an Alice in Wonderland themed treasure hunt around the village to celebrate Alice's 150th birthday, and a chance to meet Alice herself, the Mad Hatter and the Queen of Hearts. In the beautiful Bell Tent there will storytelling and activities based on Julia Donaldson's Superworm plus a rhyming adventure with the Dance of the Dinosaurs. Be ready for stomping!

More details of the timed activities will be on the festival website nearer the day... and we will finish at 4pm with cake as always.

And it's all FREE!

Sunday 28th June, from 5pm
Village Hall, Main Street, Lowdham

Warthog World of Music

5.45– 6.45pm: Hannah Scott with Stefano della Casa

Singer-songwriter Hannah Scott describes herself as being 'from Suffolk via Italy'! Her songs are irresistible and in her short career to date she has supported the likes of Ed Sheeran and 10cc. She will be accompanied on stage by cellist Stefano della Casa.
www.hannahscott.co.uk

7.15–8.15 pm: Hat Fitz & Cara Robinson

If this seems like déjà vu… It is! Is it a mistake to bring somebody back just a year later… we deliberated that one but couldn't get away from the wonderful reception the audience gave this utterly unique couple. If you've seen them before, you know what a treat you'll be in for… if you haven't, you won't be disappointed. Their music is blessed with an old-timey feel that audiences the world over have fallen in love with.

www.hatfitzandcara.com

8.45–10pm: Blackbeard's Tea Party

Funky folk tunes, storming songs and an infectious stage energy, Blackbeard's Tea Party mix fiddles & squeezeboxes, guitar noise & synth bass, and a feast of international hand percussion to bring you an unforgettable folk-rock extravaganza. The perfect band to round off the evening.
Beer tent, food stalls. All concerts in the Village Hall. Tickets: £24 all inclusive

2015 Dates for your Diary

Film Fridays

Village Hall Main Street, Lowdham, 7.30pm (Paddington at 5pm)

July 24th: Fault in Our Stars (12A, 126m)

August 21st: Paddington (PG, 95m)

September 11th: Theory of Everything (12A ,123m)

October 23rd: Into the Woods (PG, 125m)

Ice cream, popcorn, hot and cold drinks, home made cakes – there is a Wine Bar at evening showings only

Tickets £5 Full, £3 Concessions, Children and Festival Friends

First Fridays

Methodist Chapel, Main Street, Lowdham, 2–3.30pm

October 2nd: After Miss Potter

Meet Beatrix Potter on her wedding day in October 1913, for a blend of fact and fiction. An extended version of Julia Damassa's festival-opening performance.

November 6th: A Way of "Beeing", with Alison Knox

Suburban "backyard" beekeeper, Alison Knox, will share the mysteries and wonders of beekeeping.

Tickets £5 Full, £4 Concessions, £3 Festival Friends, includes tea & cake

---

October 18th: Frances Quinn, Great British Bake-Off Winner from 2013, will share stories from her baking life with us, as part of a special Baking Day.

November 17th: Michael Morpurgo brings his stunning performance of Private Peaceful to Southwell Minster, along with the music of Coope, Boyes and Simpson.

Email janestreeter@thebookcase.co.uk to be among the first to hear more!

Bromley House Library

"If you have a garden and a library, you have everything you need."
Marcus Tullus Cicero (106–43 BC)

Bromley House Library, founded 1816, is a flourishing independent lending library situated in the centre of Nottingham, one of the few remaining subscription libraries in the country. The library houses around 40,000 books and has a tranquil atmosphere. There are many fine reading rooms spread over three floors of a Grade II* listed Georgian townhouse. In addition there is a beautiful walled garden, one of only two in the city centre. The library is a pleasant place to work, relax or read. We hold regular open events if you would like to visit and we welcome groups by appointment. For year round access to our collections, building and secluded garden why not consider becoming a member. Please contact the library for our current subscriptions rates.

Dates and times of our free guided tours can be found on the website or you can pop in and have a chat with us. For our free guided tours please check our website. Group visits (£6.00 pp.) by appointment.

The Library is on the first floor and above, we regret that we are currently unable to offer disabled access

BROMLEY HOUSE LIBRARY
NOTTINGHAM
FOUNDED 1816

Bromley House Library, Angel Row, Nottingham NG9 6NH
0115 9473134 enquiries@bromleyhouse.org www.bromleyhouse.org @bromleyhouselib

1984

THE DUCHESS OF MALFI

THE RUBENSTEIN KISS

ANY MEANS NECESSARY

~~THE CONSPIRACY SEASON~~

COMING SOON

VISIT NOTTINGHAMPLAYHOUSE.CO.UK TO FIND OUT MORE

Nottingham Playhouse

A CELEBRATION OF

CLASSICAL MUSIC

Masterpieces including Mendelssohn's Elijah

Leading young professional musicians

Up-and-coming local performers

Come & Sing Mozart's Requiem

BOX OFFICE: 01636 812933

See the full programme at www.southwellmusicfestival.com

"Music has been set alight in Southwell!"

Southwell
Music Festival

27–31 August 2015

Patrons Dame Felicity Lott DBE FRAM FRCM and Harry Christophers CBE

Founder and Artistic Director
Marcus Farnsworth MA ARAM

2015 Festival Sponsor Geoffrey C Bond OBE DL LLD FSA

Held at Southwell Minster and the State Chamber, Archbishop's Palace by kind permission of the Dean and Chapter

info@southwellmusicfestival.com

Box Office Southwell Cathedral Shop, Minster Centre, Church Street, Southwell, Notts NG25 0HD

Registered charity no. 1153135
A company registered in England and Wales and limited by guarantee no. 8361306.

matrix

Funded by

Skills Funding Agency

WEA

Workers' Educational Association

Interested in Adult Education?

We are the Workers' Educational Association, also known as the WEA, and we're the UK's largest voluntary sector provider of adult education. We run over 900 courses in the East Midlands, in villages and suburbs, as well as towns and cities, so you're sure to find something to suit you.

Around the UK, over 110,000 students enjoy learning with the WEA – we very much hope you'll be one of them.

0115 962 8400

eastmidlands@wea.org.uk

weaeastmidlands.org

The Old Ship Inn

A Traditional English Pub with

- A WARM WELCOME
- BEST BEERS
- BED & BREAKFAST

FINE FOOD

Mon 12~3pm
Tue to Thu 12~3 & 6~8.30pm
Fri & Sat 12~3 & 6~9pm
Sunday Lunch 12~4pm

All our dishes are home cooked using fresh & mostly local produce

TEL:0115 966 3049

email:peggord@btinternet.com

Warthog Promotions

01159 663596

Live music in Lowdham

We have a full programme of events in the second half of 2015, including...

Stackridge – The Final Tour

Harpeth Rising

Dave Kelly

Judie Tzuke

... and many more! Pick up our new booklet at the Festival or visit us at www.warthogpromotions.com

Ticket information

Tickets are available from The Bookcase, 50 Main Street, Lowdham NG14 7BE over the counter, by mail or by credit card over the phone (Festival Box Office is 0115 966 3219 10am–4pm Monday–Saturday) or, subject to availability, on the door at events.

If ordering by post please enclose a first class SAE and include a contact telephone number. Cheques are payable to Lowdham Festivals Ltd. There is a 75p surcharge for postage on credit card telephone bookings.

Tickets are not required for free events.

Travel information for Lowdham

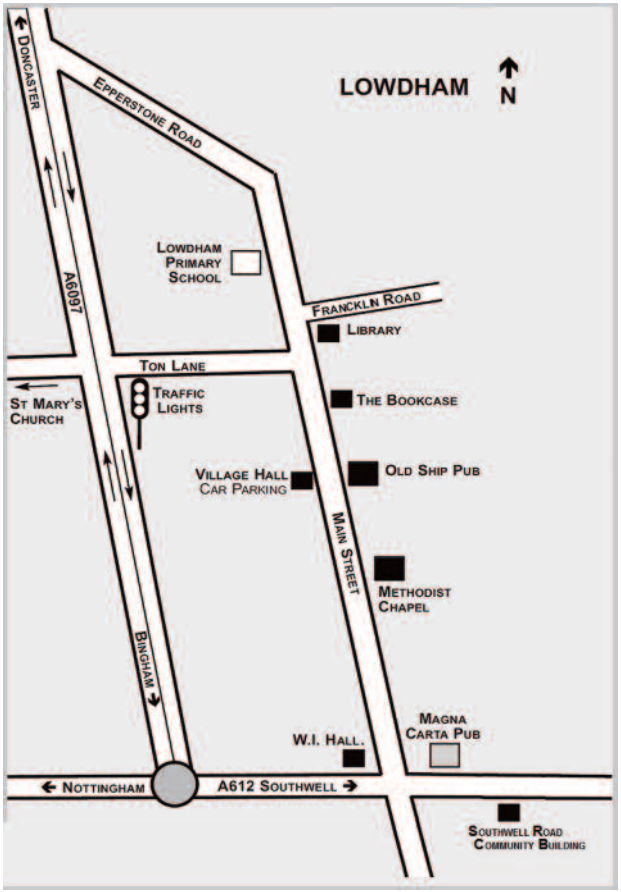

Lowdham is off the A6097 (Bingham to Doncaster) and A612 (Nottingham to Southwell) between Newark and Lowdham.

Lowdham railway station is a brisk ten minute walk from the main Festival site.

Lowdham bus stop: Pathfinder 100 buses drop off ONLY at the bottom of Main Street by the cricket ground/war memorial, seven minutes from the main Festival site.

Car parking There is car parking at the Village Hall and on and off Main Street. There is limited car parking at the Methodist Chapel and the WI Hall and opposite the Library on Francklin Road. There is a car park at the Southwell Road Community Building.

Note: car parking fills up quickly at popular events – please allow time to park. If you require disabled parking, please contact the Festival Box Office in advance.

Return to LBF, The Bookcase, 50 Main Street, Lowdham, Nottingham NG14 7BE (please make cheques payable to Lowdham Festivals Ltd and enclose a 1st class SAE)

Name

Address

Postcode

Telephone

Email address (for our mailing list)

Event
No of tickets	Full	Conc	Friends	Total cost:

Event
No of tickets	Full	Conc	Friends	Total cost:

Event
No of tickets	Full	Conc	Friends	Total cost:

Event
No of tickets	Full	Conc	Friends	Total cost:

Event
No of tickets	Full	Conc	Friends	Total cost:

Become a Festival Friend for £15 (£25 for couples)?
Overall total:

Credit/debit card no:

Issue no: Expiry date: Security code: (last 3 numbers on back of card)

The Bookcase / Five Leaves Voucher

The Bookcase opening hours:

9am–5pm, Monday–Friday

Late night Thursdays until 7.30pm

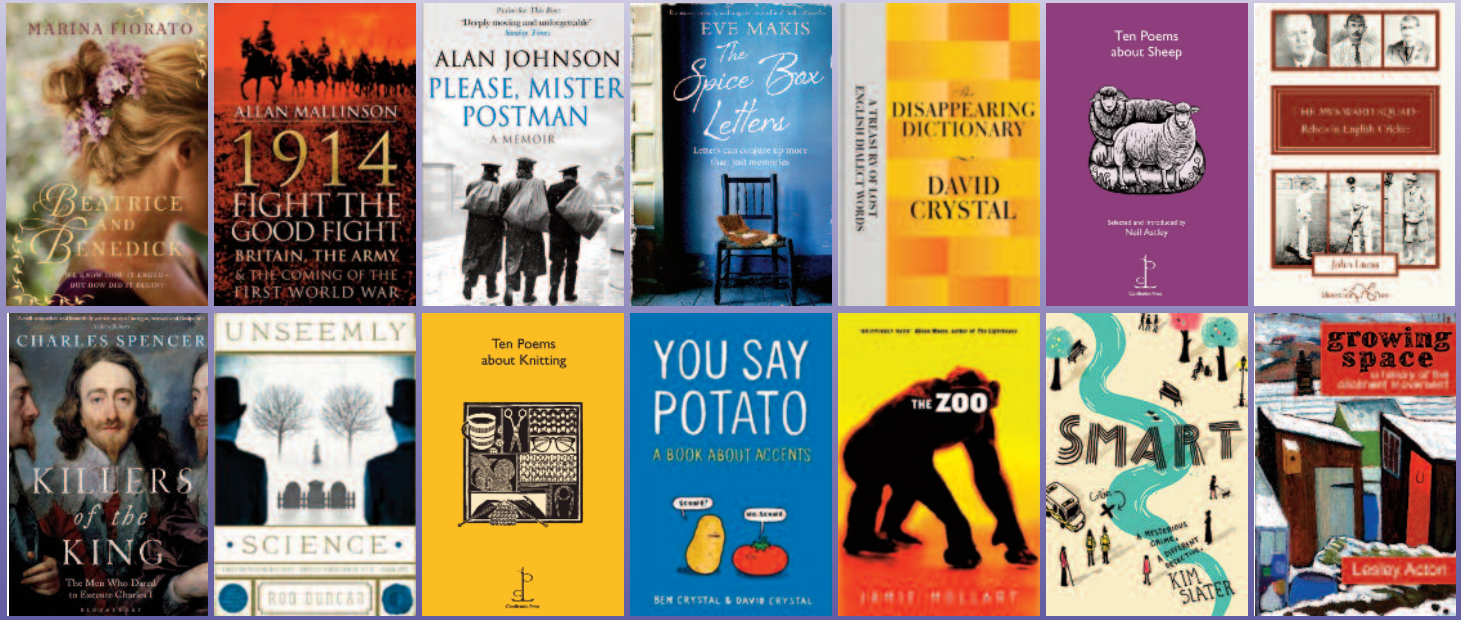

9am–4pm Saturdays

£1.00 off any book priced £4.99 or more

Redeemable during Lowdham Book Festival at The Bookcase, 50 Main Street, Lowdham, Nottingham NG14 7BE, or at Festival stalls run by The Bookcase or Five Leaves Bookshop

Lowdham Book Festival

www.lowdhambookfestival.co.uk

THE BOOKCASE
Books Gifts Cards

Five Leaves Bookshop

Warthog Promotions

Nottingham Playhouse

NOTTINGHAM HIGH SCHOOL

HART'S

ABF THE SOLDIERS' CHARITY

NOTTINGHAM WRITERS' STUDIO

NOTTINGHAM CITY of LITERATURE