

III ESTIVAL

Monument stage Global beats, take a musical journey with us...

Friday 2 August

21:00-22:15 Hallouminati

Armed with a barrage of bouzoukis, brass, guitars, keys and deranged beats, they delicately mix the gritty realms of skankin' ragga punk with traditional Greek rembetiko vibes.

19:00 - 20:15 Fat Digester

Fat Digester is an award-winning musical collective, playing a heavy mix of funk, soul and hip-hop.

Get stage line-ups straight to your phone

Sunday 4 August

16:45 - 18:00 Max Pashm Band

This high energy band's set mixes include flavours of Dub, Ska, Hip-Hop, and Rock to create a unique sound and performance style.

14:45 – 16:00 Rafiki Jazz

With an exotic backline of Caribbean steelpans, hi-life guitar and tanpura drone plus Indian tabla and Brazilian berimbau as well as deep eclectic bass.

12:00 – 14:00 Nottingham Jazz Orchestra

Join Nottingham's Premier Big Band for a musical journey through the music of some of the best Jazz bands in the world.

III III ESTIVAL

Monument Stage Global beats, take a musical journey with us...

Saturday 3 August

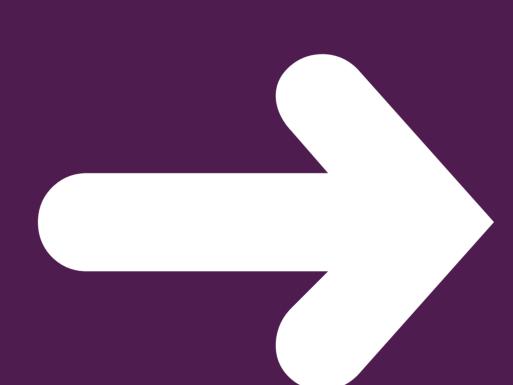

22:30 Riverside Fireworks

The ubiquitous Riverside Festival fireworks display. Watch from the banks of the river.

21:15 - 22:30 Niteworks

Hailing from the Isle of Skye, the band has achieved critical acclaim for their unique fusion of electronica and Scottish traditional music.

Get stage line-ups straight to your phone

19:15 – 20:30 Gaslight Troubadours

A cut n' paste sound of twisted beats with electro-swing and steampunk that evokes a whole new sub-genre.

17:15 - 18:30 Salseology

The perfect blend of energy and passion, bringing the very best live salsa music to the banks of the Trent.

15:15 – 16:30 Abdoulaye Samb and Minnjiaraby

A refreshing blend of traditional Senegalese music fused with many European influences to evoke a unique sound which spans two continents.

13:15 - 14:30 The Jive Aces

The worlds' busiest swing and jive band. The show features the best in 40s and 50s jive, rhythm and blues and rock 'n' roll.

Big Top stage times Meet your next favourite artist...

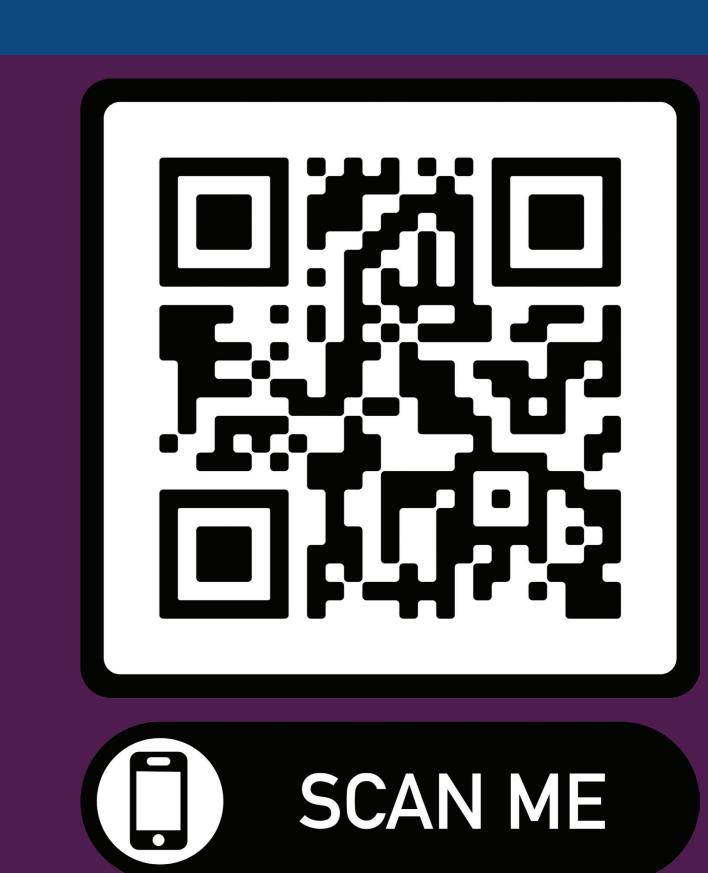

Friday 2 August

21:30 – 22:00 Mollie Ralph

Mollie Ralph mesmerises and draws in her audience at every gig with her soulful tone, dynamic range and subtle guitar work.

Get stage line-ups straight to your phone

20:30 - 21:00

Jonny Olley

A unique sound, blending influences from Jonny's guitar heroes such as John Frusciante and rappers/lyricists such as Mike Skinner and Jamie T.

19:30 - 20:00

Joey Collins

Singer, songwriter whose music has been described by critics as "rocking a low-key, Kurt Cobain sound with a hint of Jess Buckley soul." Leftlion

Nottingham City Council is

Office of the council o

III ESTIVAL

Big Top stage times Meet your next favourite artist...

Saturday 3 August

21:00 - 22:00 Scott Bugg & The Vital Few

Our Saturday night headliners. An Indie, Rock and Blues band of brothers created by the love of music for the music and the people who love music.

20:30 - 21:00 George Gadd

A talented Nottingham-based artist who segues between DIY folk and punk to create a unique sound.

19:30 – 20:00 Siobhan Mazzei

What promises to be an atmospheric set, combines a bleak folky sound with Pearl Jam-styled grunge.

18:30 – 19:00 Hannah Slavin

This Glasgow-born songstress is an energetic slice of soulful-pop that oozes charm and sass, whilst her catchy songs play out like a personal diary.

17:30 - 18:00 Karkosa

Five-piece, alternative rock band who take their inspiration from The Amazons, Catfish and the Bottlemen, Kasabian, Royal Blood and more!

16:30 — 17:00 The Ultraviolet

Perfectly blending anthemic rock with the energy of modern pop-punk to create something wholly unique.

15:30 - 16:00 Good Hustles

Four-piece strikingly talented rock, indie and thrash metal band from Nottingham.

14:30 – 15:00 Holly Fallon

At the age of only 19, singer songwriter Holly Fallon is rapidly developing a reputation in the local music scene. She is inspired by artists such as Taylor Swift and SZA.

13:30 – 14:00 Homeless Shakespeare and the Pigeon Theatre

An idiosyncratic sound, theatrical performances and comedic audience banter.

Nottingham City Council is

to present

III ESTIVAL

Big Top Folk stage times One of the best free folk festival line-ups in the UK

Sunday 4 August

16:45 - 18:00 Bob Fox

Rated as the best male singer on the British folk scene after his 4 years as the Song Man in the stage production War Horse.

Get stage line-ups straight to your phone

15:30 - 16:30 The Trials of Cato

"One of the real discoveries on the folk circuit in recent times"

Mark Radcliffe, BBC Radio 2

14:15 - 15:15 John Tams and Barry Coope

BBC Radio 2 Award Winners for

Best Duo

13:00 - 14:00 Kim Lowings and The Greenwood

"punchy and authentic"

Mike Harding

Nottingham City Council is

To present

III ESTIVAL

Kids' Bandstand Stage

Sunday 4 August

16:15 BeatFeet Workshop

(45 minute workshop)

Join BeatFeet to learn to play the African djembe drum and find out more about uplifting and energising traditional African rhythms. This session is suitable for children aged 8+ and adults, with all levels of experience welcome.

15:50 and 17:15 Rhubarb Theatre present Big Dippers

(30 minute show)

Our vivacious Victorian paddlers are all at sea for some slapstick adventure and summertime fun. Making a big splash as they surf the waves of adventure and dive deep into hi-jinks and hilarity.

14:00 Johnny and the Raindrops

(1 hour show)

Jump-up-and-down-rocking-and-rolling-can't-sit-down-best-time- ever music for children and families. Their 'gigs for cool kids' feature lively, original, life-affirming songs that encourage children's participation in music.

13:20 The Admirable Admirals

(walkabout)

Hoist the flag and shout Aye-aye! The Admirable Admirals are dropping anchor at Riverside Festival. Nelly, Bones and Fred are here to battle flying fish, each other and any unsuspecting passers-by with their water pistols and salty sea-dog ways.

12:00 Beatfeet Present The Great Big Jungle Boogie

(50 minute show)

An exciting musical jungle adventure for little ones aged 1 to 5 years and their families.

Bella Beat and Tam Tam are working hard to make this year's Great Big Jungle Boogie the best celebration the jungle's ever seen. But they need your help!

